PURELYDIAMONDS

Finding your customer's perfect diamond is now as easy as online shopping

Our mission is to empower our customers to grow their business and increase their profits.

The idea of Nivoda was inspired by the ongoing inefficiency of diamond trading. We set out to develop the solution to help businesses, regardless of their size or location, increase their sales and margins, whilst removing the operational burden of sourcing diamonds, gemstones and melee.

With a team of over 300 operators around the world and a wealth of experience in the trade, Nivoda has developed an award-winning solution recognized for its innovation, customer service and ability to deliver a seamless, reliable and efficient experience.

The world's collection, one simple platform

The Nivoda platform has been designed by jewelry industry experts, enabling you to purchase diamonds and gemstones from all over the world, hassle free.

-  Purchase from multiple suppliers in one transaction
Cherry pick the best priced diamonds and gemstones from different suppliers all over the world and pay for them in one go.
-  Simple returns ***
Filter your search results to stones eligible for returns with a single click, and easily return within 35 days of delivery.
-  Express delivery
Benefit from 2-3 day delivery on a selection of stones in the US, at no additional cost.
-  Powerful search criteria
Perform quick searches with a range of criteria, from the 4 Cs and eye clean data, to mine of origin and key to symbols.
-  Place stones on hold
Placing stock on hold gives you and your customer the time to finalize a purchase without losing your chosen stone.
-  Track orders & invoices
Keep track of your orders and invoices using our online dashboard to view expected delivery times and status updates.
